

25 Vibrant Color Paintings by Francisco Oller, Puerto Rico's Impressionist Master

Francisco Oller (1833-1917) was a Puerto Rican painter who is widely regarded as the father of the Impressionist movement in Puerto Rico. His paintings are known for their vibrant colors, loose brushwork, and depiction of everyday scenes of Puerto Rico. Oller traveled extensively throughout Europe, where he was influenced by the Impressionist painters of France. He brought back these influences to Puerto Rico, where he became a leading figure in the art world.
