

Delphi Complete Works of Propertius Illustrated: Delphi Ancient Classics 52

About the Author

Sextus Propertius was a Roman poet of the Augustan era. He was born in Assisi, Umbria, around 50 BCE. Propertius is best known for his four books of elegies, which explore the themes of love, loss, and desire. His poetry is characterized by its passionate intensity, its vivid imagery, and its use of mythological and historical allusions.
