The Tapestry of Discworld: A World So Vast, It Rests on the Back of Four Elephants

At the heart of Discworld lies its captivating setting—a flat disc perched atop the backs of four colossal elephants, who in turn stand upon the shell of the Great A'Tuin, a cosmic turtle. This whimsical foundation sets the stage for a world teeming with unique characters, diverse cultures, and a rich tapestry of landscapes. From the bustling metropolis of Ankh-Morpork to the tranquil valleys of Lancre, each corner of Discworld offers its own brand of enchantment.
